

COMPLAINT NUMBER: 2026-0454289

WARRANT NUMBER: GS1121130

PROSECUTOR: James H Jones

DEFENDANT: Phillip Lashan Slaughter

VICTIM: Brandie C Frazier

STATE OF TENNESSEE, COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

AFFIDAVIT

Criminal Trespass

39-14-405

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, [Select one] X Commissioner, ___ Metropolitan General Sessions Judge, the prosecutor named above and made oath in due form of law that [Select one] X he ___ she [Select one] ___ personally observed X has probable cause to believe that the defendant named above on 07/27/2026 in Davidson County, did enter or remain on the property of another, or any portion thereof, without the consent of the property owner to do so. The probable cause is as follows:

On 7/27/2026 at approximately 0449 hours, officers were dispatched to 880 Oakwood Terrace Dr for an Indecent Exposure call for service. Prior to officer arrival, the Complainant (Frazier, Brandie) stated that an unknown individual later identified as the Defendant (Slaughter, Phillip) was on her private property without clothing.

Upon arrival, officers began to search Frazier's property and observed Slaughter was near the side of Frazier's property that was enclosed by a gate and fence. Officers observed that Slaughter was acting abnormally by bending at the waist, moving his torso up and down as well as being clothed in only his underwear. Officers made contact with Slaughter who stated that he was invited to the property by an unknown individual by the name of "Terry" and that he was taking a shower outdoors. During investigation, officers observed that Slaughter speech was erratic and did not correlate to the events that were taking place at the time of investigation. At this point, officer detained Slaughter and placed him in a marked police cruiser.

During investigation, officers made contact with Frazier who stated that earlier in the night, she had observed an unknown individual within her property line and described him as a male black who had no shirt and had pulled down the pants that he was wearing, as well as pointing out to officers that he was the defendant later identified as Slaughter. Frazier stated that Slaughter began to jump up and down repeatedly and had began screaming for unknown reasons which caused other residents to wake up. At this point, Frazier called for police assistance. During investigation, Frazier stated that she wished to prosecute for Trespass at this time due to Slaughter not having her explicit permission to be in the property and him remaining for an extended period of time.

During investigation, officers attempted to ask Slaughter where his current residence was located, in which he repeatedly refused to provide to officers. During investigation, officers researched Slaughter through police databases and observed multiple addresses that Slaughter may have been resided in but could not verify his current residence at this time. Due to officers observing Slaughter trespassing on Frazier's property, officers being unable to verify Slaughter's residence, Slaughter refusing to provide additional information, and Frazier wishing to prosecute for Trespass, officers placed Slaughter under custodial arrest for Trespass and Indecent Exposure. Officers transported Slaughter to booking and transferred him to DCSO custody without incident.

Due to the likelihood that the offence would continue, officers could not provide a Misdemeanor State Citation at this time.
