

COMPLAINT NUMBER: 2026-0321912

WARRANT NUMBER: GS1115317

PROSECUTOR: Jennifer M Walsh

DEFENDANT: Rickyia Darvin

VICTIM: Lululemon

STATE OF TENNESSEE, COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

AFFIDAVIT

Theft of Merchandise- $10,000 or > but < $60,000

39-14-146

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, [Select one] X Commissioner Metropolitan General Sessions Judge, the prosecutor named above and made oath in due form of law that [Select one] he X she [Select one] personally observed X has probable cause to believe that the defendant named above on 05/25/2026 in Davidson County, did unlawfully remove merchandise without the intent to pay for it and that the probable cause is as follows:

On May 25th, 2026, Makiya Givans, Dasha Hall, and an unidentified female entered the Lululemon on Hillsboro Pike in Green Hills. Lululemon Organized Retail Crime Investigators provided detectives with security footage of this theft as well as an inventory of items taken.

Video shows Ms. Givans, Ms. Hall, and the unidentified woman enter the store and immediately go to the women's athletic wear area on the left side of the store. The three are seen lifting a large amount of merchandise off of the racks, which included four bags valued at $88.00 each, eighteen women's shirts valued at $68.00 each, ten pairs of women's pants valued at $128.00 each, twenty pairs of women's shorts valued at $78.00 each, twenty-five women's Define zip-up jackets valued at $128.00 each, ten pairs of women's tennis pants valued at $168.00 each, and twelve UV protection women's tennis jackets valued at $168.00 each (total value $11,312.00). The group then walked right back out the door less than one minute later getting into a vehicle owned and driven during this incident by Rickyia Darvin.

Detectives were informed this was the same group of individuals who had shoplifted from the 12th Ave S location roughly one hour prior, where two GPS trackers were taken during that incident.

Detectives are very familiar with Makiya Givans from several recent shoplifting events across Davidson County and recognized her on the provided footage. She was wearing the same sweatshirt she has also worn in several thefts over the last few months. Detectives were able to follow the GPS tracker taken in the theft from 12th Ave S with the knowledge that these were the same individuals, to an apartment, where MDHA cameras showed Ms. Givans, Ms. Hall, Ms. Darvin, and the unidentified woman without a face covering walking the merchandise from the vehicle into an apartment. Detectives compared all of this footage to social media accounts, Tennessee driver's license, and most recent DCSO booking photos to confirm identifications for Ms. Givans, Ms. Hall, and Ms. Darvin.

Within two hours of this theft, Ms. Givans began to post the merchandise, clearly displaying security sensors, price tags, and hangers, for sale on her Instagram page. This account is known to belong to Ms. Givans, and all posts were saved for evidentiary purposes. Those same photos were posted showing merchandise for sale in several Facebook groups known for the resale of stolen goods by Nicole Pitt, whose apartment the merchandise was brought to immediately following the theft by Givans, Darvin, Hall, and the unidentified female.
