STATE OF TENNESSEE, COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

AFFIDAVIT

Vandalism- $2,500 or > but < $10,000

39-14-408

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, [Select one] ___ Commissioner ___ Metropolitan General Sessions Judge, the prosecutor named above and made oath in due form of law that [Select one] ___ he ___ she [Select one] ___ personally observed ___ has probable cause to believe that the defendant named above on 03/09/2026 in Davidson County, did unlawfully Vandalism- $2,500 or > but < $10,000 and that the probable cause is as follows:

On 03/09/2026 0716 police responded to 308 Plus Park Blvd in reference to an audible break in alarm. Police arrived and observed the front door of the leasing office having been broken into, and significant damage in the interior of the building.

Police later responded to 308 Plus Park Blvd Unit N10 at 03/09/2026 1029. This was in reference to someone who had been evicted from the property, and had broken into the now vacant unit. Staff indicated the eviction was final, and she had not recently occupied the apartment. Police observed the door having been forced opened, breaking the door fram. Police located the defendant in room N10.

She was observed to have a cut on her left hand, and on the back of her right ankle. She also allowed officer to view the soles of her shoes, which contained pieces of broken glass in the tread. The cuts appeared fresh as evidenced by the glisten of light, bright color, and were consistent with being wet. Red fluid was observed on the left side her sweater that was consistent with blood, indicating she had cut her hand sometime after putting that piece of clothing on.

Security footage showed the defendant breaking into the leasing office at 0702 03/09/2026. The footage shows her face clearly and shows her in the same clothing as when police made contact with her at unit N10. It shows the defendant put her right foot through the window, where the rear ankle of her leg comes to rest on the recently broken glass. This is consistent with the defendant's injury. After entry is made into the leasing office, security footage shows the defendant break two computers, various décor pieces, a Keurig coffee maker, and throwing items to the ground.

Police observed on camera footage the defendant strike at a row of pictures and computer monitors with her left hand. She is seen taking the picture into her hand and ripping it prior to leaving the leasing office. That picture was recovered in the leasing office with blood on it. That is consistent with the defendant having struck the items, cutting herself, and leaving her blood on scene. Staff estimate the total damages to have occurred to be worth $5200 USD.
