On May 11th, 2026, Terri Newsom and Kimberly Whitworth entered the HomeGoods in Bellevue One shopping center. HomeGoods loss prevention personnel provided detectives with security footage of this incident.

Video shows Ms. Newsom enter the location and select a cart before heading further into the store, and Ms. Whitworth coming into the store behind her. The two women made their way through several areas of the store, however, are seen spending the bulk of their time in the kitchen accessories. The two women are seen selecting various kitchen items to include can openers, utensils, and a coffee maker amongst other items, a total value of $371.82, and placing it all into the cart. Video captures Ms. Newsom and Ms. Whitworth go down to where the cutting boards are, and begin to conceal the merchandise from the cart into Ms. Newsom's purse. The two women then headed to the front and exited without making any attempt to pay for the concealed merchandise.

Detectives with the Organized Retail Crime Section are familiar with both Ms. Whitworth and Ms. Newsom and recognized them upon seeing the video. Detectives compared the provided video footage to Ms. Whitworth and Ms. Newsom's respective most recent Tennessee driver's licenses and DCSO booking photos.
