The probable cause is as follows:

On October 26th, 2025, Larrin Cox entered the Gucci in Green Hills Mall. Gucci management provided detectives with security footage of this incident.

Mr. Cox entered the location to complete an exchange on a previously purchased item. Video shows the associate assisting Mr. Cox step away to complete the exchange. At this time, Mr. Cox is seen grabbing a green "GG" logo baseball cap, valued at $570.00, and concealing it inside of his jacket. After completing his exchange, Mr. Cox left the location without making any attempt to pay for the concealed merchandise.

While completing the exchange, Mr. Cox used his Gucci account, which is associated with his name and phone number. This was provided to detectives by Gucci management. Detectives compared the security footage of this incident to Mr. Cox's most recent Tennessee driver's license and DCSO booking photo to confirm his identity.
