The probable cause is as follows:

Home Depot loss prevention reports that on 01-11-2026 at approximately 1641 hours the defendants enter the store located at 2535 Powell Ave. The two entered together and they select a DeWalt combo kit valued at 249 dollars. The male defendant removed the security spider wrap from the tool and put it in the cart. The two then went to aisle 32 where they removed the tool from the box and concealed it into the female defendant's purse. They then walked out of the pro exit and Loss prevention employees attempted to stop them. The defendants refused to stop and fled the area in their truck. Home Depot has video of the incident and they wish to prosecute for the thefts.
