On June 12th, 2026, Helen McGuire and an unidentified female entered the TJ Maxx in 100 Oaks. TJ Maxx loss prevention provided detectives with security footage of this incident.

Video shows Ms. McGuire and the other woman enter the store and select a cart before making their way to the home furnishings. They are seen entering the bedroom aisle, where they each select a comforter and place them into the cart. The two women then head back to the front, where they stop the cart, lift out the comforters and exit without making any attempt to pay for the $146.00 in merchandise.

Helen McGuire was arrested during the commission of a separate theft on July 23rd, 2026. Arresting officers were able to identify Ms. McGuire for detectives. Detectives compared this footage to Ms. McGuire's most recent DCSO booking photo and Tennessee driver's license to confirm her identity.
