The probable cause is as follows:

On May 19th, 2026, Raleigh Wade and an unidentified female entered True Religion located inside of Opry Mills Mall. True Religion management provided detectives with security footage of this incident.

Video shows Ms. Wade and the unidentified female enter the location where they spend some time browsing. Ms. Wade has a large black tote purse on her shoulder as they make their way around the store. The women are seen stopping at a table, where they begin to make selections valued at $524.40 in total, and conceal them into Ms. Wade's tote purse. The women then exit without making any attempt to pay for the merchandise.

True Religion employees were able to provide detectives with Ms. Wade's name. Detectives compared the provided video footage to Ms. Wade's most recent Tennessee driver's license and Facebook account to confirm her identity.
