The probable cause is as follows:

On 7/16/2026 at approximately 1517 hours, surveillance cameras at Home Depot located at 5010 Old Hickory Blvd. capture a male and female subject enter the location, pushing a shopping cart with a small child. Surveillance cameras capture the couple go straight to a display of Milwaukee brand combo drill kits valued at $349 each and select two, along with a power tool battery valued at approximately $22. The items are then placed in the shopping cart with the small child, and a coat is placed over the items. Surveillance cameras capture the couple immediately head toward the exit and leave the store without paying for the items. Loss prevention provided detectives with the name of the co-defendant as the male subject from previous Home Depot thefts and detectives learned that he had outstanding warrants related to those thefts. While investigating those cases, detectives located identifying information the co-defendant's wife, who also had outstanding warrants for theft cases from Home Depot and positively identified her as the defendant in this incident. The total value of the merchandise stolen in this incident was approximately $720.
