On July 28, 2024, officers were approached at 3701 James Kay Ln(Hermitage Precinct) by the victim (Ronnie Wilson), who stated that he was involved in a domestic incident at 361 Burning Tree Dr(Burning Tree Apts). The victim stated that his girlfriend Kimberly Woods-James(Defendant)began accusing him of "cheating", and charged him with a "large knife" while telling him to leave the residence. The victim stated that the defendant was a "crack" user and was extremely "high". The victim stated he was able to disarm the defendant and he threw the large knife outside in the breezeway of the apartment complex. The victim stated that the defendant's then left the residence and returned a few minutes later. The victim stated he asked the defendant "what did you do? Slash my tires", and the victim stated the defendant began to laugh. The victim stated he went out to check on his vehicle and observed his passenger rear tire to be punctured. The victim stated that he did not have a cell phone due to the defendant previously destroying it, so he was unable to call 911. The victim stated he decided to travel to the nearest police station and notify officers of the incident. Officers observed the victim's rear tire to be flat. Officers responded to 361 Burning tree Dr in order to speak with the defendant. The defendant refused to open the door and speak with officers. The defendant stated, "he already left", referring to the victim, and stated she had "nothing else to say". Officers were unable to locate the "Large knife" in the breezeway area of the apartment complex. The victim stated he wished to prosecute and was transported to night court by officers. Officers were able to identify the defendant based on a name, date of birth, and address provided by the victim.
